

Sinclair
Broadcasting's plan
to pre-empt regular programming and
force its member
stations to run an anti-Kerry
documentary just before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is required
by law to serve the public interest.
When large companies
control the airwaves
we see improper
attempts to manipulate the
political process.
Another example is
the Clear Channel
radio stations.
The actions of these companies show why
we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them, for the sake of democracy.
Thank you.
